NSPCC – TALK PANTS

The NSPCC are celebrating 10 years of Talk PANTS! Pantosaurus has helped 1.5 million parents Talk PANTS (Privates are private, Always remember your body belongs to you, No means no, Talk about secrets that upset you, Speak up, someone can help) and keep their children safe from sexual abuse. Developed in consultation with children, parents, carers and teachers, Talk PANTS is here to help children understand their body belongs to them, and they should tell a safe adult they trust if anything makes them feel upset or worried.

The NSPCC website has a wide range of PANTS guides, videos and resources to help parents talk PANTS with their children – use the link below to take you the relevant areas.
