

Our weekly themes have included:

- ❖ Diary writing as a character from Street Child, Jim Jarvis, writing about being thrown out onto the streets during the Victorian era and having to find work in a Workhouse.
- ❖ Learning Spanish through songs and actions!
- ❖ Writing a WW2 poem using figurative language and imagery.
- ❖ Developing our independence in Mission areas, we have been cooking Spam Hash, creating graphs to show casualties from WW2, writing a factfile on Anne Frank, PowerPoint presentation on Nicholas Winton, reading activities based on our Street Child book and creating a Welsh poster welcoming refugees to Wales.
- ❖ Our Mantle of Experts needed us to create a book for the Berlin Museum based on Nicholas Winton, a man who created the Kindertransport moving refugees from danger approaching in Czech to safety in London.
- ❖ We have enjoyed also writing Harvest Poems!
